Biography

Lindsay Arnold is an American-Canadian born in Rugby, North Dakota and raised in North Portal, Saskatchewan. Her ancestry is a mix of homesteading stock spanning both sides of the border. Lindsay attributes her creative abilities to the long line of knitters, quilters, and crafters in her family tree. Her art training includes numerous artist retreats, private lessons, workshops and mentorships. She has exhibited her work throughout Saskatchewan and beyond.

Lindsay still lives in North Portal, SK with her husband and daughter. When not working in her home studio, she can be found moonlighting as the village administrator.
